

Issue: The self extracting program stalls.

Error message reads: '1011 Fork exemption'

Cause:

This message indicates that there is not enough memory OR that the installation folder has not been located on the root directory.

Solution:

Change the default of the download to another location. The C Drive root would be appropriate. If C drive is full other files may need to be relocated to another drive.