

Information about a character

Character's name: _____

To Create a poem about your character, you will need to gather information about this character from the book, and think about which information to include. Use this rap sheet to help you gather your thoughts.

Which information will you include about these aspects of your character:

Appearance:

Behaviour:

Personality:

Interests, or other plausible information:

Other important information

What personal ideas might you include about your character and how they are portrayed in the book?

Now, form your thoughts into an interesting poem.