

Writing a limerick:

will this structure suit your character?

A limerick is an entertaining poem with only 5 lines.

The first, second and fifth line rhyme.

The third and fourth line rhyme.

The first, second and fifth line have the same number of syllables and beats.

The third and fourth lines have the same number of syllables and beats.

A limerick is often a less serious poem - so have fun!

Line 1:

Line 2:

Line 3:

Line 4:

Line 5:
