

Name: _____

Book Title: _____

Author: _____ Illustrator: _____

A profile of _____`S family

Family members include: _____

_____

OR characteristics of the different families seen in Rex by Ursula Dubosarsky, illustrated by David Mackintosh

| Characteristic   | Page number or event | Describing words and information | How do we know? (Author/illustrator technique) |
|--|----------------------|----------------------------------|--|
| How do family members help each other?   |                      |                                  |  |
| How do family members talk to each other (what language do they use?)                |                      |                                  |  |
| How do family members give advice?   |                      |                                  |  |
| How do family members make each other happy?   |                      |                                  |  |
| How and where do family members go on outings together?                              |                      |                                  |  |
| How, where and when do family members share day to day activities?Food? Washing? |                      |                                  |  |

Name: _____

| Characteristic   | Page number or event | Describing words and information | How do we know? (Author/illustrator technique) |
|--|----------------------|----------------------------------|--|
| What are the mother's activities?  |                      |                                  |  |
| What are the father's activities?  |                      |                                  |  |
| What other relatives do we see and what do they do?                        |                      |                                  |  |
| How and when do family members share secrets and/or jokes?                 |                      |                                  |  |
| What visitors does this family have?When does this family go visiting? |                      |                                  |  |
| What are the children seen doing?  |                      |                                  |  |
| What role do animals play in the family?                                   |                      |                                  |  |
| How do the families share important events?                                |                      |                                  |  |
|  |                      |                                  |  |
|  |                      |                                  |  |
|  |                      |                                  |  |