3. The rap also provided opportunities for you to:

- read an extensive range of demanding texts.
- develop reading skills and strategies appropriate to these texts.
- analyse the language used by authors to create texts and make you think in certain ways.
- create well structured texts of your own, for a range of purposes and audiences
- analyse your own text by considering whether or not they achieved their purpose.
- interact in pairs or groups to listen and communicate effectively with others.

After discussion with your teacher/s and classmates, comment on how the rap helped you to develop your reading, writing, listening and speaking: _____
